OPEN CONCURSO 2023

ANUNCIO DE LOS GANADORES DE CADA CATEGORÍA Y LOS FINALISTAS

EXPOSICIÓN: 14 ABRIL - 1 MAYO 2023 | SOMERSET HOUSE, LONDRES

La World Photography Organisation se complace en anunciar los ganadores de cada categoría y los finalistas de los premios Sony World Photography Awards 2023, en que se reconocen las mejores fotografías de 2022.

Se enviaron más de 415 000 imágenes de 200 países y territorios para participar en los premios Sony World Photography Awards 2023 y más de 200 000 quedaron finalistas. Cada ganador recibe un equipo de fotografía digital de Sony y competirá por el prestigioso reconocimiento como Open Photographer of the Year (Fotógrafo del año) y un premio de 5 000 $ (USA).

El ganador del concurso se anunciará en la ceremonia de entrega de premios en Londres el 13 de abril. Las fotografías ganadoras y finalistas se expondrán como parte de los premios Sony World Photography Awards en Somerset House del 14 de abril al 1 de mayo de 2023.

Los ganadores de las diez categorías son:

ARQUITECTURA

Mark Benham (Reino Unido) por The Silos, una imagen de tipo collage de unos silos y las edificaciones circundantes en fascinantes tonos rosados en el puerto de Brest, en Francia.

CREATIVA

Boris Eldagsen (Alemania) por PSEUDOMNESIA | The Electrician, un evocador retrato en blanco y negro de dos mujeres de distintas generaciones, reminiscencia del lenguaje visual de los retratos de familia de la década de 1940.

PAISAJE

Giorgos Rousopoulos (Grecia) por su imagen de un paisaje montañoso en Grecia, en que se muestra a un escalador ascendiendo al Monte Tymfi, destacando majestuosamente en el fondo y mirando desde arriba al Parque Nacional Pindus.

ESTILO DE VIDA

Azim Khan Ronnie (Bangladés) por Childhood, en que se captura a unos niños serpenteando entre conos gigantes (topas) en una plantación de arroz de Bangladés, mientras juegan con un carro utilizado por los trabajadores para transportar y secar el arroz.

MOVIMIENTO

Zhenhuan Zhou (China continental) por Slam on the Brakes, en que se muestra a una amazona en una carrera de barriles en Ontario, Canadá. En estos concursos, las chicas cabalgan rodeando los barriles y la más rápida se corona como ganadora.

MUNDO NATURAL Y VIDA SALVAJE

Dinorah Graue Obscura (México) por Mighty Pair, un retrato en blanco y negro tomado durante un viaje al sur de Texas, en que se muestran dos pájaros caracara quietos y mirando hacia lo lejos en la misma dirección, como si estuviesen posando para la foto.

OBJETO

Mieke Douglas (Países Bajos) por Recycled, no todo es lo que parece en este trampantojo en que se muestran bolsas de plástico con forma de flor y ramos de tul, invitándonos a echar un segundo vistazo.

RETRATO

Sukhy Hullait (Reino Unido) por Charlie, retrato de un adolescente que, junto con sus amigos, decidió convertir un aparcamiento de un pub abandonado en una pista de skate cuando la mayoría de los pubs cerraron durante la pandemia.

FOTOGRAFÍA CALLEJERA

Andreas Mikonauschke (Alemania) por Exhausted, un evocador retrato en blanco y negro de hombres exhaustos tras levantar y transportar pesadas estructuras de madera con figuras que representan escenas bíblicas por las calles de Andalucía durante las tradicionales procesiones de Semana Santa.

VIAJES

Max Vere-Hodge (Reino Unido) por Ghosts, una dramática fotografía en blanco y negro de la tribu Mundari de Sudán del Sur, que emergen entre las hogueras nocturnas que encienden para mantener a las moscas tsetsé y los mosquitos alejados de sus apreciadas vacas Ankole-Watusi.

El Open Competition de este año tuvo como juez a Eric Schlosser, director artístico, Tbilisi Art Fair, Georgia.

Los ganadores en las categorías de Estudiante, Joven, Open y Profesional de los premios Sony World Photography Awards 2023 se anunciarán el 13 de abril de 2023 y formarán parte de la exposición en Somerset House, Londres, del 14 de abril al 1 de mayo de 2023. NOTES TO EDITORS

ABOUT SONY WORLD PHOTOGRAPHY AWARDS

Produced by the World Photography Organisation, the internationally acclaimed Sony World Photography Awards is one of the most important fixtures in the global photographic calendar. Now in its 16th year, the free-to-enter Awards are a global voice for photography and provide a vital insight into contemporary photography today. For both established and emerging artists, the Awards offer world-class opportunities for exposure of their work. The Awards additionally recognise the world's most influential artists working in the medium through the Outstanding Contribution to Photography award; the renowned Japanese photographer Rinko Kawauchi is the 2023 recipient of this award, joining a distinguished list of iconic names including Martin Parr, William Eggleston, Candida Hofer, Nadav Kander, Gerhard Steidl, Edward Burtynsky and Graciela Iturbide. The Awards showcase the works of winning and shortlisted photographers at a prestigious annual exhibition at Somerset House, London. worldphoto.org/sony-world-photography-awards-exhibition

ABOUT WORLD PHOTOGRAPHY ORGANISATION

World Photography Organisation is a leading global platform dedicated to the development and advancement of photographic culture. Its programming and competition initiatives provide valuable opportunities for artists working in photography and help broaden the conversation around their work. The Sony World Photography Awards is World Photography Organisation's principal programme. Established in 2007, it is one of the world's biggest and most prestigious photography competitions; celebrating the work of leading and emerging practitioners and attracting tens of thousands of visitors annually to its exhibitions worldwide. World Photography Organisation is the photography strand of Creo, responsible for delivering initiatives and programming across three sectors: photography, film and contemporary art. CREO

Creo initiates and organises events and programming across three key strands: photography, film and contemporary art. Established in 2007 as World Photography Organisation, Creo has since grown in scope, furthering its mission of developing meaningful opportunities for creatives and expanding the reach of its cultural activities. Today, its flagship projects include the Sony World Photography Awards, Sony Future Filmmaker Awards, PHOTOFAIRS Shanghai, Photo London and the forthcoming PHOTOFAIRS New York (Sep 2023). Working in partnership with Angus Montgomery Arts, Creo helps deliver the group's ventures, comprising some of the world's leading art fairs. Taking its name from the Latin for 'I create', it is in this spirit that Creo sets out to empower and give agency to creative voices. www.creoarts.com
